

Something a farmer would use	A type of transport	Something older than you	Something your parents could have used when they were children	Something used to communicate with people
Something people use in their work	Something you have never seen before	Something you can wear	Something you have used before	Something very old
Something used for entertainment	Something used in the kitchen	Something used for holidays	Something to do with animals	Something to do with children

Something to do with babies	Something that your grandparents could have used when they were children	Something that is older than anybody you know	Something that can be played with	Something that can make music
Something that amazes you	Something that you could carry things in	A family	Something made of metal	Something that is old but would still be useful today
A game	Something made of wood	Something you might find in a house	Something made of plastic	Something with wheels

Something that looks like hard work	Something people could live in	A type of footwear	The oldest thing	The newest thing
Something that needs electricity	Something that doesn't need electricity	Something valuable	Something you can drink out of	Something that people use today
Something that makes you think of a question	Something you can sit on	Something you can ride	Something that would be fun to use	Something that looks broken
